

PRESS RELEASE
PARLIAMENT OF SINGAPORE

SPEAKER SEAH KIAN PENG REPRESENTS SINGAPORE AT 9th
G20 PARLIAMENTARY SPEAKERS' SUMMIT
IN NEW DELHI, INDIA, FROM 12 TO 14 OCTOBER 2023

Speaker of Parliament, Mr Seah Kian Peng, is representing Singapore at the 9th G20 Parliamentary Speakers' Summit (P20) in New Delhi from 12 to 14 October 2023, at the invitation of the host country, India.

2 Singapore is a guest country of this P20 hosted by the Parliament of India. During the three-day Summit, he will be meeting and engaging with counterparts and parliamentarians of the G20 nations, as well as representatives of non-G20 countries.

3 They will be sharing their legislative experiences and discussing possible strategies for inter-parliamentary cooperation in addressing global issues. In line with this year's theme of "One Earth, One Family, One Future", the summit aims to build consensus and deliver effective policy solutions to promote sustainable and inclusive growth across the world, and to ensure equity, inclusiveness, and peace via four high-level sessions.

4 During the Summit, Mr Seah will be speaking on the topic of "Sustainable Energy Transitions: Gateways to a Green Future" on 13 October 2023. Mr Seah may also hold bilateral meetings with his parliamentary counterparts from participating countries.

Background

5 Hosted by the parliament of the country that holds the G20 presidency and with the support of the Inter-Parliamentary Union, the P20 brings together Speakers, Deputy Speakers, and other parliamentarians from the world's 20 major economies. The P20 is part of wider efforts to bring a parliamentary dimension to global governance, aimed at the raising of awareness and building political support for international commitments; and helping to translate these effectively into national realities.
